Objektbeschrijving:

This central corner building, which is a predestined location for a store, could be revived as a commercial or residential project. This property, with its 88 sqm, is barrier-free and located in the center of the village of Alaró.

Alaró is very popular and well known due to its proximity to Palma and as a starting point for hiking or cycling tours.

This former pub, which is located on the first floor, is divided into 2 open spaces that are connected to each other; both with large windows. There are also guest toilets and a storage room.

In Alaró, restaurateurs can additionally rent the wooden terrace areas in front of the stores to increase their store space.

The premises have also been inspected by an architect and approved for conversion into an apartment. However, renovation is required in any case.
