Objektbeschrijving:

This gem of a property, dating from the 17th century, stands on an impressive plot of land of 700.000 sqm. It consists of diverse buildings including the majestic main house with over 1,000 sqm of living space, a charming guest house, and various stables and outbuildings. Although requiring some restoration the estate radiates its unique character and promises enormous potential, whether for use as an exclusive finca hotel, or as a magnificent private country domicile for those seeking a very special property.

An impressive project for the reformation of the finca already exists, and has the aim of allowing the property to shine in new splendour and to make use of its many possibilities.

The lush vegetation surrounding the buildings consists of large pine forests, cultivated fields and extensive fruit and vegetable areas, creating a picturesque atmosphere, with a Mediterranean garden completing the idyllic picture and offering a wonderful retreat in the midst of nature.

An estate of this size and location, in such a setting and offering so many possibilities is a true rarity, and promises its future owners a life in incomparable beauty and exclusivity.
