Objektbeschrijving:

This very well-maintained Mediterranean natural-stone finca is situated on a hill on a plot of approx. 10,650 sqm between Son Macia and Manacor. Thanks to its elevated position the property, built in 2006, offers spectacular panoramic views of the surrounding countryside and the mountains together with absolute privacy. A very special feature is its valid touristic rental licence for up to 6 persons.

It is accessed via a paved driveway, and upon arrival beautiful Mallorcan elements can be admired both internally and externally including, for example, the traditional natural-stone façade. Inside on the ground floor high ceilings with exposed wooden beams in the living area emphasize the Mediterranean character. A separate dining area with adjoining, fully-equipped fitted kitchen invites to convivial get-togethers with family and friends. The heart of the finca is its large terrace which can be accessed directly from the living/dining area, and offers breathtaking panoramic views of the mountains.

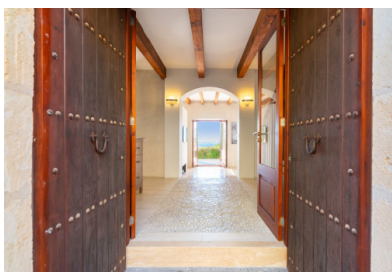

On the upper floor are 3 double bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, one of which is en suite.

The outdoor and garden area of the finca is low-maintenance and is laid out with Mediterranean plants, and offers magnificent views of the mountains conveying a feeling of freedom in the midst of nature. Here the approx. 40 sqm pool with adjoining sun terrace provides an oasis of relaxation.

Further features include a guest WC and underfloor heating.
