Objektbeschrijving:

This wonderful village-house is situated in the centre of S'Alqueria Blancan, and offers superb sweeping views as far as the Tramuntana mountains. During its construction only the highest-quality materials were used, tastefully combining traditional Mallorcan elements with modern architecture.

On the ground floor is a comfortable living/dining area with fireplace, where floor-to-ceiling windows allow beautiful views of the Mediterranean garden and make the living area bright and friendly. Natural elements including wooden beams and high ceilings create a real Mallorcan character. The adjoining kitchen is fully equipped, and there is also a guest WC, a utility room and a garage on this level.

A staircase leads to the upper floor with 3 bedrooms, each with en-suite bathroom.

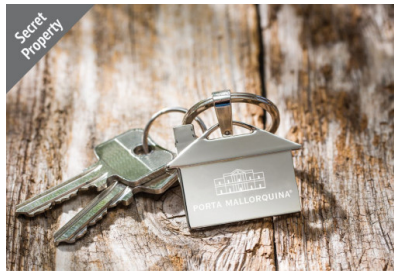

In the garden, with its Mediterranean plants and diverse sunny areas, a romantic spot under the olive tree invites to relax and enjoy sweeping views as far as the mountains. The adjacent pool completes the package.

This lovely property combines the assets of a finca, including privacy, nature, with a good infra structure which is within easy walking distance. Particularly noteworthy is the good-quality technical equipment including air conditioning and underfloor heating which are served by an air-source heat pump, allowing the property to be comfortably occupied all year round. There is also a garage.

If we have awakened your curiosity, then please do not hesitate to contact us for a viewing appointment.
